BLUE ELEMENT INTERNATIONAL FREEDIVE COMPETITION

8-17 NOVEMBER 2026

Six competition days · Soufrière Bay, Dominica · filmed and live-streamed by DiveEye

NO WAVES. NO CURRENT. NO DEPTH LIMIT.

OUR MISSION

LIFT THE VEIL ON FREEDIVING

Freediving happens out of sight. Our mission is to share its beauty worldwide — through live streaming and immersive experiences that elevate tournaments, captivate fans and grow a global community celebrating the ocean.

OUR BROADCAST PARTNER

Mateusz Malina, 130m — continental record, live last year.

DIVEEYE

The leader in underwater freediving footage. DiveEye have hosted dozens of tournaments over the last decade and are unmatched in capturing the action. Their drone follows the athlete the whole way down, so the moment is no longer hidden below ten metres — with sponsor marks and athlete data on screen.

4 HRS

THE TEAM

JOHNNY SUNNEX

@johnnydeep110

Blue Element founder, World Championship Chief of Safety and AIDA Instructor Trainer. -110m constant weight.

HARRY MCCAHILL

@harrymccahill

Blue Element managing director. Runs the bay, the platform and the athlete programme.

JOHNNY VICARI

@johnnyvicari13

Freedivers United founder and a Molchanovs instructor from Florida. Hosts multiple freedive festivals across the state.

WHERE THE FOOTAGE TRAVELS

Freediving reaches far beyond its own audience once it is filmed well. These are the numbers DiveEye events have produced.

10-20M

Social media impressions across Vertical Blue, the most prolific freediving event to date and a DiveEye production.

20-50M

Further reach through traditional network avenues and documentaries — BBC, NBC and others licensing the footage.

20K

Viewers per day online at peak on comparable events, watching the full four-hour broadcast window.

MILLIONS

of YouTube views on individual world records filmed on DiveEye, which keep earning long after the event closes.

100K+

Followers across the athletes and accounts competing in and covering our November event.

40+

ATHLETES IN NOVEMBER

Including two or more world record holders already confirmed, competing across constant weight, free immersion and no fins.

PAST PARTNERS

BRANDS THAT HAVE BACKED THE BAY

The brands that backed the 2025 competition — the athletes, the safety operation and the broadcast.

To join them for November 2026, see the packages that follow.

THE PACKAGES AT A GLANCE

Every package is built around the same core inventory: six competition days between 8 and 17 November, each carrying around four hours of commentated live stream — roughly 24 hours of coverage — plus an event website, active social channels, and physical space on the beach and the platform. The tiers differ in how much of it you take, and how visible you are inside the broadcast itself.

BRONZE

Get your brand noticed

$500

ON THE BROADCAST

A 15-second commercial of your own supply, aired three times daily inside the four-hour live stream — at the session open, the mid-session break and the results wrap.

DIGITAL & SOCIAL

Prominent logo placement on the event website, linked to your site, plus inclusion in the sponsor shout-outs across our Instagram and Facebook channels through the competition.

Best for brands testing this audience for the first time. The perfect way to boost your visibility and support the competition.

SILVER

Elevate your brand

$1,000

ON THE BROADCAST

A 30-second commercial aired three times daily, with your logo carried in the sponsor rotation that runs alongside the live scoreboard between dives.

ON SITE

A small banner in the beachside competition area, visible to spectators and in the shore-side camera angles.

DIGITAL & SOCIAL

Featured logo placement on the event website and inclusion in all social media shout-outs, including one dedicated story per competition day.

BEST FOR

A fantastic mid-tier package for brands that want to be seen both on the stream and at the bay itself.

GOLD

Shine bright

$5,000

ON THE BROADCAST

A 60-second commercial aired four times daily, plus announcer mentions when your spot runs and a place in the between-dive sponsor rotation.

ON SITE

A medium banner placed in the main competition area, in shot for shore-side interviews and athlete arrivals.

DIGITAL & SOCIAL

Prime logo placement on the event website and mentions in every social media campaign we run before, during and after the competition.

PRESS

Named in all official press releases issued around the event, including any world-record announcements.

PLATINUM

The ultimate exposure

$10,000

ON THE BROADCAST

A 120-second commercial aired six times daily across the full four-hour window, plus an exclusive sponsor interview or feature segment during the broadcast.

ON SITE

A large banner displayed prominently at the bay, and your logo on the platform itself where the underwater and surface cameras work.

DIGITAL & SOCIAL

Premium logo placement on the event website and on all event materials, with dedicated mentions — not group shout-outs — in every social campaign.

PRESS

Named in all official event press releases and credited in the post-event highlight film.

Platinum gives your brand maximum visibility and exclusive recognition.

PRINCIPAL SPONSOR

$50,000

Become the named sponsor for the event. Alongside all the perks of the other tiered packages, you can create personalised deliverables to really maximise viewership of your brand. How will you represent yourself in the deep?

NAMING RIGHTS

Your name sits in the event title, on every broadcast bumper, poster, banner and press release for the November 2026 competition.

ANNOUNCER SUPPORT

Dedicated shout-outs by the announcers during the event, and livestream commentary that highlights the specific deliverables you have asked for.

EVERY LAYOVER

Your logo on all layovers on the livestream, on event posters and banners, beachside, on the platform and on the safety line graphics.

PERSONALISED DELIVERABLES

Branded segments, athlete features, a named discipline or a challenge of your own design — built with us in the months before the event.

This package offers the most visibility for your brand, and the most control over how you deliver it through the event. One principal sponsorship is available for November 2026.

SAFETY TEAM SPONSORSHIP

Back the divers who bring everyone up

$12,500

Every dive at Blue Element is watched by a team of twelve: six safety divers who meet the athlete on the way up, two medics on the deck with oxygen ready, three judges who verify the depth, and a platform coordinator running the line. Become our official Safety Team Sponsor and your logo goes on the back of every safety shirt worn at the event — in frame on almost every dive.

WHAT YOUR $12,500 COVERS

Safety divers — six divers across six competition days	$4,900
Medical team — two medics, oxygen and trauma kit on the deck	$2,500
Judges — three certified judges verifying every dive	$4,000
Platform coordinator — rigging, counterballast, boat cover	$1,100
TOTAL	$12,500

ANNOUNCERS

Dedicated shout-outs during event intervals recognising your role in keeping athletes safe.

DIGITAL

Logo on the event website, on the shirts, and in select social media campaigns.

COMMENTARY

Mentions in livestream commentary whenever the safety team is featured. One available.

50%

OF ALL PROCEEDS TO THE BLUE ELEMENT CSR FUND

A disaster fund for the island, local swimming lessons for Soufrière children, and reef conservation through the SSMR and other agencies. Your support goes back into the places and people we dive among.
